

How is the Educational System in your Home Country Organized?

Background and problem: Each country of the world has its own educational system. For sure there are a lot of similarities but also lots of small differences. In some countries children are graded with numbers, in other countries letters are used, in some countries must schools are operated by the government, other countries rely on private schools and so on.

Task: Please describe the educational system in your home country. Try, for example, to answer the following questions: At what age children start to go to school? How are the schools organized? Are there more governmental or private schools? Do all children go to the same type of school or not? Is it expensive to go to school? How does a typical day of schools looks like? How the higher educational system organized?
